

GUIDELINES ON THE CONDUCT OF ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

These guidelines are to be observed in the conduct of Associate Members of ALPHA PHI OMEGA PHILIPPINES, Inc.:

1. Only individuals who have successfully completed the application process set forth may introduce himself/herself as an Associate Member.
2. Individuals who have not yet successfully completed the application process should introduce himself/herself as an Associate Member Candidate and participation is limited only to local activities of the endorsing Organizational Unit.
3. Associate Members should shake hands using the left, however, the word "Associate" should immediately follow in introducing one's name and before the name of the organizational unit.
4. Associate Members cannot participate in any Pledge Initiation.
5. Associate Members cannot vote nor be a candidate for any elective position. Its participation in his/her own organizational unit's meeting will depend on the local rules established by the unit.
6. These Guidelines may be amended by CoMe in the future as the need arises.